Looking Ahead

We who arise with the radiant dawn,
Whose light is revealed on the far mountain's crest,
Watch as the mists, lifting, vanish from sight;
And, conscious of that which now lies in the west,
We see on the hill whence the darkness has fled,
In shadows and sunlight, the long road ahead.

Slowly unclasping those hands which with care
Have patiently led us and pointed the way,
In grateful remembrance of truths they have taught
We'll follow their guidance as dawn turns to day;
Accepting our burdens as gravely we view,
Beyond the familiar, a road that is new.

Footsteps may falter, our spirits grow faint,
And shadows may darken the long road ahead,
But those who arise in the days yet to come
Shall see on the hillside the course we now tread;
And thus shall be helped by our efforts until,
Like us, they have climbed to the top of the hill.

Wreathèd in laurels He placed on our heads,
With eyes on that hilltop the sun has turned gold,
Mindful of those who have suffered defeat,
Whose destiny yields to the sceptre we hold,
We'll thank Him by helping to lighten the load
Of those who may fall by the side of the road.

We who arise with the radiant dawn
Rejoice in the light which the morning has brought!
Feeling its challenge, we'll earnestly climb
In search of that victory many have sought.
The future is ours, to be shaped as we will—
We'll find our reward on the crest of the hill.

WHAT LIES ON THE ROAD AHEAD

John E. Reitz

Dedication . . .

In deep appreciation of his keen understanding, his wise counseling, and his untiring efforts to map out for us safe roads ahead, we, the Senior Class of 1946, do affectionately dedicate this twenty-eighth link of THE CHAIN to our friend and teacher,

JOHN E. REITZ

Preface . . .

After the strain of four terrible years of war, the Lane student emerges, contemplating plans for the future. He wonders what part the founding of the UNO and the discovery of the atomic bomb will play in his life. He beholds with joy the return of the high school jalopy, but with a new seriousness he realizes that the coming years will not all be as bright as the enamel paint which adorns the jalopy's hood. He has learned not to waste the opportunities that some have not lived to enjoy. Because of their sacrifice, he is assured of a chance to travel—the road ahead.

CLASSES . . .

"I light my candle from their torches—"

CLASS PRESIDENTS

The
SENIOR CLASS
OFFICERS

President—LEN COINER

Vice-President—JACK WARWICK

Secretary—CAROLYN LAWRENCE

Treasurer—BILL WOOD

Warily the Seniors push open Lane's doors to go out into a new, different world—a world struggling to win a finer, lasting peace. Their hopes are high, for it rests with them to lift, to rebuild, to direct the broken, war-weary world. As they take their places in various walks of life, they are filled with thoughts of gratitude for their teachers, their parents, and their leaders who have guided them. Without these counselors, they could not have climbed to these heights.

As these students stepped forward to become "high and mighty" Seniors, they skillfully showed their ability to lead. Norton Pritchett as Student Council president did an excellent job. "Buddy", who was also voted the most representative boy, played both football and basketball for the Orange and Black and was outstanding in every way during his five years at Lane.

The class elected able officers. Len Coiner, also voted the most popular boy, was selected as Senior president. Len was president of his Junior class and also president of the "C" Club. Jack Warwick, president of the choir, became vice-president. Jack had leading parts in the past operettas, was on the football team, and was a member of the Honor Committee. Billy Wood was elected treasurer and was also voted the best looking Senior boy. Carolyn Lawrence became both class secretary and secretary of the Student Council.

The publications were excellently managed by three very capable girls, Anne Haden, editor-in-chief of Lanetime; Anne Freudenberg, editor of The Bumble-Bee; and Nancy Byrd Leslie, editor-in-chief of THE CHAIN, who was also voted the most popular girl.

Sue Walker, president of the Band, was voted the most talented girl in the Senior Class. She took part in both the operetta and the Senior play. Polly Glover, selected as the best dressed Senior girl, was president of the Players' Club.

Percy Barnett drew many cheers from the crowds as he played on Lane's football team. "Perk" made a very efficient "C" Club president this year, while Evelyn Easton became the first president of the newly organized Girls' Athletic Association. "Eve" had a leading part in the Senior class play and was prominent in many school activities.

David Wurfel and Felicia Lentz were outstanding in their stage performances. They had roles in various Players' Club plays and in the Senior class play. Langdon Hankins, voted most likely to succeed, was conspicuous in his oratory accomplishments; "Hank" was editor-in-chief of Lanetime last year and his portrayal of "Banjo" in the Senior play was excellent.

Remembering the first time they pushed open Lane's doors, the Seniors smile as they recall their greenness. Bewildered, befuddled eighth graders were they. The spacious halls, the tall Seniors, the noisy recesses, the banging lockers, the long class periods—all were new and different to them. They studied, took orders, and dreamed of the day when they would be Seniors. Between giggles, they rather enjoyed their freeness of thought and action. Slowly, thus, they stumbled through their first year at Lane.

Then they moved up a "rung of the ladder". As Freshmen, school assumed a different appearance, for they joined clubs, attended the football and basketball games, and even smiled at the Seniors now and then—pride in their school became important; they began to have school spirit.

With their interest in school activities mounting by leaps and bounds, they became Sophomores. Feeling very wise and believing that they were "practically" Seniors, the Sophomores began to assist with the Band, the Hi-Y, Lanetime, the Players' Club.

Happily they eased into their Junior year. Here were large amounts of hard work other than lessons for them to undertake. They wrote for the publications and participated in assemblies and Players Club plays. After wading through long operetta practices, they were happy when it was so successful. As ushers, they helped patrol the halls and the cafeteria. They worked a lot harder at football practices. The out-of-town football trips were fun for those who could "bum a ride". The dances and parties brightened their week-ends. They were Seniors "in the making"; they were learning to live and work and play together happily.

And then, they became Seniors! They now realize that our nation needs the energy and the enthusiasm of young people with foresight and ability to guide its progress. As they walk out of the doors of Lane, their feet are reluctant to carry them away from security to the challenge of the world ringing in their ears, but they realize that a road lies beyond filled with opportunity and service. So, slowly they close Lane's doors behind them, and go forward to face the problems on the road ahead.

OFFICERS

MAX KENNEDY	President
KEN WALLENBORN	Vice-President
SALLIE ROSS	Secretary
SAM CRICKENBERGER	Treasurer
MR. C. J. M. BLUME	Sponsors
MR. G. C. SPEIDEL

The Junior Class held its first meeting and elected the red-headed football and basketball player, Max Kennedy, as president. First chosen in his Freshman year, Max has been re-elected president of his class for each successive session. Ken Wallenborn was selected as vice-president; Sallie Ross, secretary; and Sam Crickenberger, treasurer. Sponsors chosen were C. J. M. Blume and G. C. Speidel.

First Row: C. Georges, A. Daniel, M. Dean, E. Wood, B. Medley, A. Patterson, A. Lea, L. Payne, P. Holliday, C. Via, D. Brown, A. Mooney, M. L. Kane, E. Ramey, S. Ross, C. Wood, and J. Ewell.

Second Row: G. Mawyer, M. L. Wood, M. Ogilvie, E. Bond, A. Keane, A. Adams, L. Bendel, J. White, E. Elliton, and J. Seiberg.

Third Row: R. Jones, J. Bailey, E. Martin, P. Zang, L. Wood, B. Carver, H. Burton, J. Fray, S. Crickenberger, I. Walker, A. Hart, G. Lewis, D. Morris, J. Harlow, W. Overman, S. Duff, C. Norford, C. Reed, B. Wood, D. Wells, W. Finnegan, J. Eckford, B. Drash, B. Dettor, K. Wallenborn, and J. Collins.

At this first meeting activities which the class wished to sponsor were discussed. A picnic was planned, and for the first time in many years, the Juniors decided to entertain at a Junior-Senior dance.

Members of this class have been outstanding participants in all school activities. Juniors representing Lane at the All-State Band Contest were "Tissie" Ramey, Mary Dean, Carman Norford, Walter Finnegan, and Irving Walker. Paul Zang and Sallie Ross took leading parts in the school operetta, "The Bells of Capistrano", and other members of the class helped to entertain at assembly programs given by the various musical groups at Lane.

Junior ushers chosen included Ken Wallenborn, Henry Burton, Bobby Wood, and Max Kennedy, and also Ken, an active member of the Student Council, was the Junior's representative on the Honor Committee.

Many boys from the class helped to compose one of the best football teams Lane has seen in many years. The Juniors who represented Lane on the gridiron were Bill Carter, Max Kennedy, Jason Eckford, Albert Yancey, Bobby Wood, Arnold Breeden, Bill Dettor, Carlton Morris, Gordon Stauffer, John Root, Dick Wells, Ken Wallenborn, King Richardson, and Billy Pritchett who was an able assistant manager. Among those directing the cheering at the football games were two Junior girls, Millie Lou Kane and "Chic" Martin.

On the basketball court, Max Kennedy, Bobby Wood, Billy Pritchett, Bill Dettor, Albert Yancey, Carl Cash, and Pat McCauley performed creditably for the Lane team.

Many or all of the above boys also took part in the spring sports, track and baseball.

Having participated so actively in all phases of student life this year at Lane, the Juniors of '46 should be well trained to step into the places of leadership. As Seniors of '47, they will continue to lend their assistance in making the peacetime Lane a real force in the democratic world of tomorrow.

First Row: E. Saunders, M. A. Thomas, J. Tilman, J. Barr, M. Shaw, E. Sprouse, M. Newton, P. German, B. Fletcher, S. Sadler, J. Breeden, R. Maupin, P. Chaffin, S. Richardson, and R. Tidwell.

Second Row: M. Hughes, N. Taylor, B. Miller, A. Taylor, C. Morris, V. Holt, and R. Hamlet.

Third Row: B. Smith, M. D. Hughes, L. Norvell, L. Herring, B. Witkins, P. Lawrence, H. Casey, J. Graves, and B. Hankins.

Fourth Row: B. Duff, M. Nimmo, C. Morris, D. Farris, E. Betts, E. Birkhead, J. Ix, R. Hantzmon, P. Corey, R. Armstrong, D. Fraser, B. Tomlin, W. Lupton, P. McCauley, E. Haines, G. Stauffer, L. Alder, J. Root, A. Breeden, A. Yancey, K. Richardson, H. Benton, B. Pritchett, C. Cash, M. Kennedy, and C. Morris.

The Sophomore Class, who felt so important last year as Freshmen, felt twice as important this year. Beginning to realize that they were really a part of the school, the members of the class have participated in all activities, many having worked with the Student Council, Lanetime, Bumble-Bee, CHAIN, Hi-Y Clubs, Players Club, Band, and various other musical groups, of which the choir is the most outstanding.

First Row: F. Newman, N. Tyler, B. Newman, R. Roberts, M. Ray, B. A. Adams, and M. A. Martin.

Second Row: M. Brown, M. Pace, M. Fielding, M. F. Joseph, S. Bunch, D. May, C. Kennedy, H. McCauley, D. Harvey, and J. Bellomy.

Third Row: B. Wade, C. Clark, N. Combs, B. Sadler, B. Morris, J. Wood, F. Oliver, M. A. Tyler, P. Sullivan, and B. J. Smith.

Fourth Row: J. Newman, B. Wiley, B. A. McConchie, L. Carpenter, L. Matacia, G. Cummings, S. Wells, G. McCasland, T. Sully, R. Morrisette, M. Wade, J. Herr, T. Slaughter, L. Schweickert, J. C. Craft, G. Powell, F. Payne, M. H. Cason, I. Knight, B. Watts, M. A. Newman, C. Hudson, D. Rouleau, and P. Yoe.

The success of the class was due mainly to the efficiency of the sponsors, Miss Alice Green and J. E. Reitz, and the class officers, Eugene Nuckols, president; Jackie Lee, vice-president, Barbara Peterson, secretary; and Jimmy Bickley, treasurer.

The most outstanding Sophomore boy in athletics was M. H. Cason, who won a coveted "C" for his excellent work in football. Paul Payne, Richard Morrisette, Eugene Nuckols, and Bernie Chisholm were also very active on the basketball, football, baseball and track teams.

The Sophomores were very proud of their scholastic rating, since from the list of nine students who made "A" on every subject for the first term, three were from this class. These three honor students, who also took part in many school activities, were Nancy Tyler, Mary Ann Tyler, and Charlotte Yancey.

Marea Jo Wiard and Dick Granneman had leading parts in "The Bells of Capistrano", the successful operetta given by the music classes in February. Mary Ann Martin, Doris May, Alice Daugherty, and Betty Ann Adams were very active as cheer leaders. The Lane High Band had many Sophomores playing in responsible positions. Outstanding were Jimmy Bickley, Jackie Lee, Wayne Marshall, Barbara Lutz, and Barbara Peterson.

Anne Chase, Dick Granneman, Tommy Jarman, and John Fletcher were among the members of the class who were active in the Players Club, and the staffs of Lanetime and THE CHAIN count a number of Sophomores as valued members of their groups.

J. C. Craft has rendered faithful and patriotic service to Lane as Student Chairman of Stamps and Bonds, and in addition has capably worked as Projection Operator of the movie machine.

Judging by the unfailing efficiency and energetic drive of the members of the class of 1948, the school can look forward to an outstanding and exceptionally active Junior class, whose members will take their places in the positions of responsibility, which they, as upperclassmen, will inherit.

First Row: S. Oakey, J. Lewis, V. Hall, C. Yancey, A. Chase, S. Highfield, M. Marshall, C. Carratt, and D. Dorrier.

Second Row: R. Harrison, J. Giannini, M. Robertson, B. J. Peterson, S. Harlowe, M. Bragg, S. Preddy, J. Marrs, B. Betts, C. Beasley, and B. Yowell.

Third Row: J. Dofflemoyer, A. Davis, J. James, A. Brown, K. Poss, M. Stokes, G. Dudley, K. Mays, M. Trimble, L. Chisholm, R. Sacre, and J. Scruggs.

Fourth Row: A. Dougherty, P. Payne, J. Weinberg, N. Stevens, C. Worrall, J. Lee, F. Batty, M. Luck, T. Jarman, R. Mussey, B. Wilkerson, A. Llorens, E. Nuckols, W. Lindsay, E. Knight, B. Vernon, W. The Freshman Class was unique in choosing as its president a girl, Jessie Ewell, who also served as secretary of the 8th grade group. Other officers selected were Ezra Harvey, Vice-President; Jane Yoe, Secretary; John Knight, Treasurer; and Miss Thornhill and J. L. Sauder, Sponsors.

A number of members of the class took part in the operetta "The Bells of Capistrano", and also participated in the various assembly programs presented by the choir, glee clubs, and band. The cast of the Lions' Club minstrel was well sprinkled with talent from the Freshman Class.

First Row: C. Dunn, A. Omohundro, V. McCoy, V. Morton, M. Greaver, D. Roberts, N. Wood, M. Snow, D. Head, M. Kirby, J. Wood, and V. Morris.

Fifth Row: R. Craven, A. Diehl, D. Sandridge, J. Holland, B. Hurtt, D. Snead, B. Kelly, F. Gregg, and D. Roberts.

The Sophomores had a party for their little brothers and sisters last fall. The bingo games, movies, ice cream, and cake all contributed toward making the evening a most pleasant one for both groups.

The enthusiasm and initiative of Lane's Freshmen should carry them far in the years to follow when they will be upperclassmen. Lane is fortunate in having such a capable group who will take the place of those leaving and carry on in the best traditions of the past.

First Row: B. Lang, E. Harlan, K. Clark, D. Deming, E. Wade, H. Tebell, and J. Davis.

SERVICE . . .

*"We saw not clearly nor understood,
But, yielding ourselves to the master-hand,
Each in his part as best he could,
We played it through as the author planned"*

Lane High School can be justly proud of the 1300 alumni and alumnae who fought so gallantly during this terrible war just ended and who met unflinchingly every demand made of their strength and courage, even when it meant paying the supreme sacrifice. They fought in order that we and succeeding generations might enjoy the better things of life.

Many of these valiant men and women are returning now to civilian life, some to business positions, some to college, and some to high school. Lane has welcomed fourteen of these veterans. They have seen service in every part of the world, in every branch of our country's armed forces. They have served humanity well; Lane intends to serve them as well in her way. True, we can never repay the debt of gratitude and appreciation that is due these men, but each can help by assisting them on their way to a successful future. We are glad that we have this chance to acknowledge our overwhelming debt; this opportunity to welcome and assist these veterans in returning to normal living.

Forty-six former Lane students paid the supreme sacrifice. They laid down their lives that you and I may go to school, to coke parties on Saturday nights, to next year's football games and enjoy all those little things that make life here at Lane so dear to each of us. Yes, forty-six of our friends and relatives will not return to enjoy these things with us; these things that make up our way of life—the anticipation perhaps of years at college and the proud possession of our independent job. But they will always be present; as we graduate from high school, as we enter college, as we cheer our team on to the winning touchdown, they will be there with us, for their spirit is with us always. Their spirit and their complete belief in the democratic way of life will stand shoulder to shoulder with all of us. They are watching to see that Lane students preserve and uphold what they gave their mortal life to save. They will always be there, watching us as we push forward on the road ahead, molding our lives, our future, our country.

The future is in our hands, to do with as we wish and as we are capable of doing. To secure this ability to mold, this ability to think, to express our opinions, we must plan now for a broadening of our interests, our viewpoints, to the width of our continent, our world, for it is only with this international knowledge that we can accurately and safely attempt to formulate and enforce a workable method of retaining this present peace, paid for so highly with the lives, the futures, of many of our citizens, both men and women. We owe this much to these courageous legions, these past citizens whose spirits stand watch over us, the future guardians of peace. We cannot relax our vigilance; we cannot stop on the road that lies ahead.

In order to stimulate more interest in the Victory Bond drive, the school committee promoted a project which deserves special attention. It designated the time from November 9 to November 21, 1945, as Hero Days. A specially prepared chart headed "As a reminder of the sacred trust left us by our war heroes, I proudly present this list of Lane High School students who died for our country in the recent conflict. Let the spirit of their sacrifice guide your conscience in your support of the Victory Loan Drive of 1945," listed the names of all ex-Lane students who sacrificed their lives during World War II.

Each person who bought a bond placed a gold star by the name of the one whom he wished to honor.

The following list represents not only the pupils of Lane High School who entered the armed forces between April 1, 1945 and April 5, 1946, but also others who have been in for a much longer period and who were added as their names were brought to our attention. A total of 1307 former Lane High School pupils have been recorded as being members of the armed forces. While every effort has been made to have this list complete, it appears inevitable that some names will have been inadvertently omitted. We regret the omission, and will be glad to have these called to our attention so that our rolls may be complete.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Chain

With the hope that in the years to come the reader may glean an hour of pleasure from the perusal of this, Lane's 1946 yearbook, the staff proudly present the 28th link of THE CHAIN.

Working under the shadow of many unforeseen difficulties, the editors slowly and painfully compiled the annual. The first problem that confronted the staff was the choice of a theme. In view of the fact that 1945-46 was the first session of peace at the end of a long war, the subject of Reconversion seemed appropriate. As the year progressed, the wisdom of this selection became apparent as Lane welcomed with joy the return of many activities which it had missed during the war.

Throughout the fall and winter months the chief obstacle which hampered progress was the weather. Rain and snow made it impossible to take any pictures out-of-doors for many weeks, but with the arrival of spring cameras appeared in large numbers, and the welcome snapshots came pouring in.

For many weeks tired eyes strained to identify the myriad of minute faces in hundreds of pictures spread over the long table in the School Board room. There was the puzzling question as to how twelve features could be arranged on eight pages, and there were Senior photos to be re-taken. When most of the pictures had been identified, labeled and dispatched to the printers, the write-ups and diary still remained to be completed. Serious doubts were voiced, pressing matters were overlooked, and mistakes were made, but all difficulties were eventually overcome.

It is the wish of the staff that many years from now you may leaf through the pages of this book, recalling old friends, your teachers, and the pleasant days of your life at Lane.

Lanetime

Lanetime is a paper published every three weeks by the students at Lane. Any pupil in school may join the staff if he can contribute regularly and can do satisfactory work. In order to be a good staff member one should be able to make at least C in English.

In 1919 the first paper was printed at Midway. It was called the Midway Student until 1941 when the high school was moved to Lane. A contest was held early in 1941 to give the paper a new name. Students and members of the faculty entered the contest and the name Lanetime was chosen.

This year more than ever before, Lanetime has given recognition to the returning war veterans. During the war, Lanetime sent issues of the paper to the soldiers overseas to keep them informed as to the activities at Lane. Now that some of them are back at Lane, the paper is trying to help them in their work.

The problems of the school are discussed by the students in the paper. Constructive discussion is always welcomed.

This year one issue was devoted to the peace time activities of the school. It contained pictures of outstanding members of each organization in the school and a brief sketch of the teachers at Lane.

The one purpose of the paper will continue to be recording the news of a good high school as it fulfills its rightful place in a society of peace and progress.

Each year Lanetime is entered in the Virginia High School Literary and Athletic League contest. In 1945 Lanetime received the rating superior in the contest. Mr. Miller, instructor of English at the University of Virginia, wrote "It is seldom that I have the opportunity of reviewing a paper that has improved so much in the space of one year as your paper has."

Through the years the size of the Bumble-Bee has varied, as any other periodical, in accordance with the interest, time, and energy expended by the students and teachers. Emphasis has always been placed upon the representative quality rather than the quantity of material published.

The staff this year was composed almost entirely of last year's members who successfully edited the winter and spring issues. It is difficult to estimate the value of experience gained in the independent publication of a magazine of creative writing, but it was with great satisfaction and pride that the staff watched the Bumble-Bee grow.

The Bumble-Bee was given the rating of honorable mention by the Virginia High School Literary and Athletic League last year. Although the staff reviews with pride its past accomplishments, it looks forward toward the time when it will not only rank as distinguished among the publications of the public schools of the state, but when also through its merits it may win acclamation from the entire student body.

Fortunately, the Players Club, Lane's only dramatic organization has not had to cope with reconversion problems. Since the purpose of the club is to promote dramatic arts in the school, activities have not been curtailed by the war.

The main event is the presentation of the annual play, which this year was Thornton Wilder's "Our Town". This play was novel in that it was the first presented at Lane without scenery. Outstanding performances in the play were those of David Wurfel as Stage Manager, Felicia Lentz as Mrs. Gibbs, James Harlan as "Doc" Gibbs, and Jimmy Rinker as Mr. Webb.

At the beginning of the school year try-outs for prospective members were held. There were many students trying out, and more candidates were accepted this year than ever before.

"Waiting for Dorothea", directed by Miss Virginia Bolen, "Overtones" and "If Men Played Cards as Women Do", directed by Albert E. Johnson, were plays given for assembly programs. For the first time the Players Club presented a skit for the Band dance: "Fireman, Save My Child", in which Walter Finnegan, David Wurfel, Dan Via, and Jimmy Rinker took part.

The Choir of Lane is composed of the most accomplished singers in the school. Voice, quality, ability to read music, and willingness to work are the requirements for membership. Last year this organization became affiliated with the National Federation of Music. This association has been renewed and a choir member wears the Federation pin. Also, the group subscribed to the Federation magazine, and therefore, read and discussed news of the music world.

The largest undertaking of our capable director, Mrs. Blume, was, with Miss Bolen, to direct the operetta "The Bells of Capistrano". This operetta offered opportunities for many singers to participate. The leading roles were as follows: Ramon—Jack Warwick, Marion—Sallie Ross, Billy—James Collier, Laura—Marea Jo Wiard, Lone Eagle—Minor Johnson, and Noneeta—Sue Walker. Also an octet added to the attractiveness of the production.

The Girls' and Boys' Glee Clubs are music organizations open to pupils who have a desire to sing. Each Glee Club meets separately two days a week, at which time part songs for women's voices and unison and part songs for boys are learned. They meet jointly once a week to sing music arranged for mixed voices.

The purpose of the Clubs is to enjoy singing and to create a better understanding and appreciation of music through active participation and by the playing of records.

In contrast to the war years when the emphasis in music was laid on patriotic music and the stressing of unity with our allies, the meaning of music as an international language is now being stressed.

A majority of the members of both Glee Clubs took part in the operetta, "The Bells of Capistrano". Paul Zang played the part of Posé, the Indian chief, and Anne Mooney was one of the Spanish sisters. Most of the other members sang in the choruses. They worked hard and enthusiastically over the operetta and were well rewarded by its success.

The clubs made some excellent recordings of the best selections they had done during the year. The girls made a recording of "The Star", a three-part song for women's voices. This selection was a favorite of the class. During the Christmas season the combined clubs made a record of "Is This the Way to Bethlehem?"

The Girls' Glee Club sang at one of the vesper services at the First Methodist Church and both clubs worked hard for and anxiously awaited the assembly program that they gave in the spring. The program planned by a student committee with the cooperation of the other members was enthusiastically received by the audience.

During the year the Glee Clubs have improved to such an extent that they offered the choir some real competition.

The Band regards among its purposes, the following:

1. To develop abilities, interest, and appreciation of band students of Lane High School to the highest point possible in high school music life.

2. To create for Lane High School, the community of Charlottesville and the State of Virginia, a musical organization of which all can be proud.

3. To develop quick and thorough thinking, reasoning and coordination, to demonstrate the advantages and outcome of cooperation, to encourage and constructively to assist correct student leadership so that members may become better citizens in later years.

With the above purposes always in mind, the Lane High Band is growing yearly in ability and usefulness. Although the actual production of music is not the greatest of its purpose, the band has made over 25 public appearances during the session. Wherever it performs, excellence of drill and playing are always noted; but the greatest compliments have been the many remarks referring to the members' fine discipline, cooperation, and character.

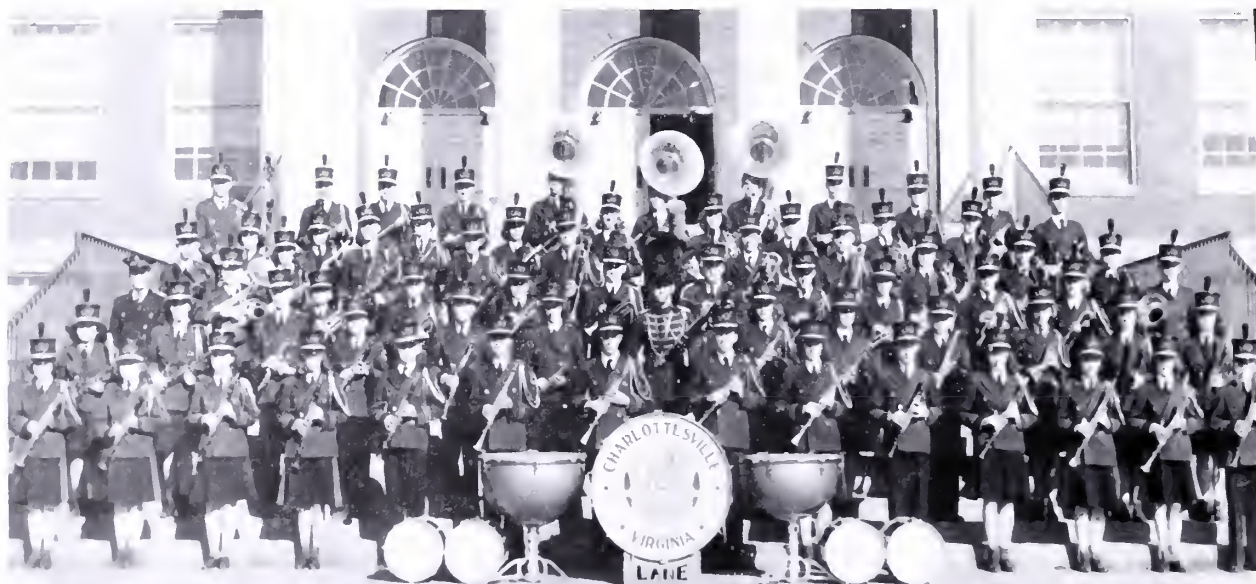

The Christmas Concert on December 16th and the Spring Concert on April 26th make up the two major local presentations of the session. Such concerts have always been attended by a large audience of local patrons and musical-minded people from many points throughout the state.

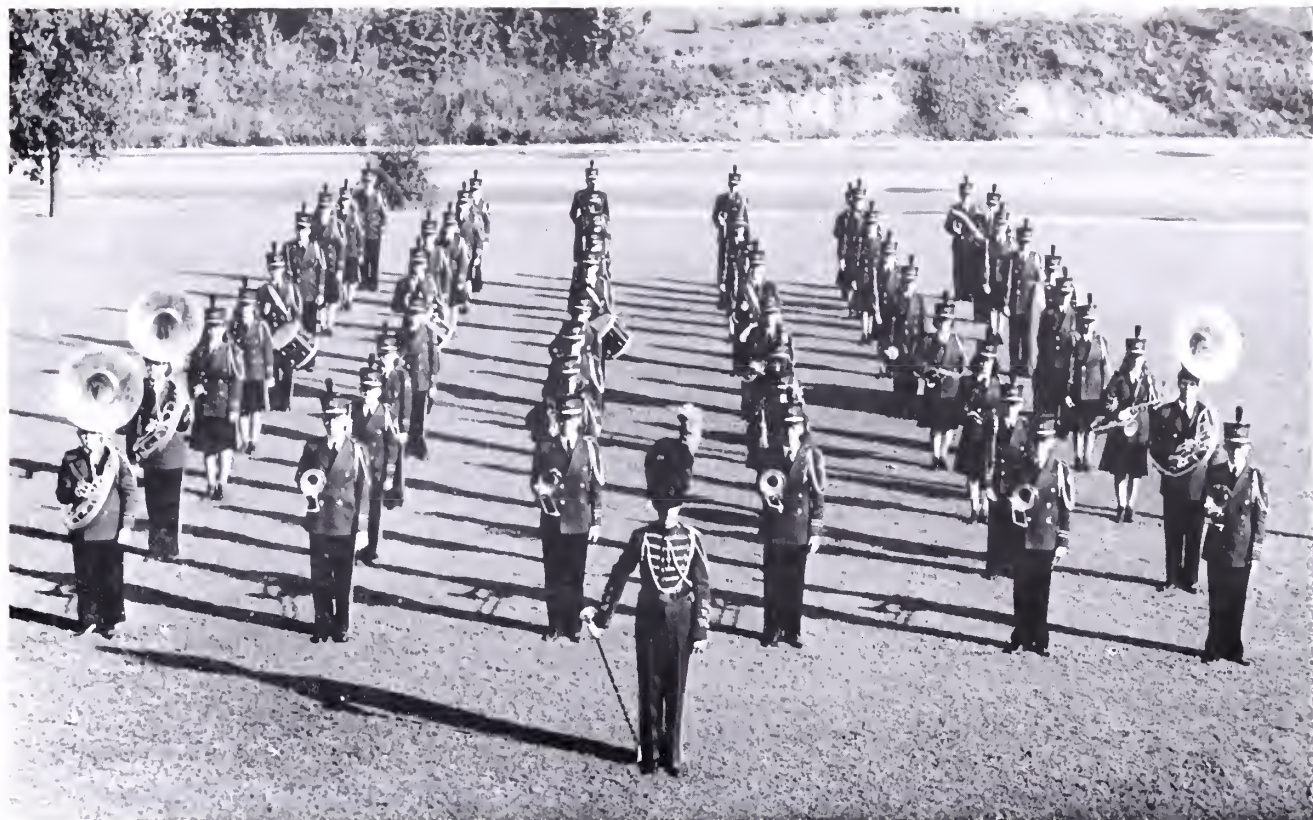

Nineteen members were chosen to participate in the All-State High School Band in Lynchburg, February 8-9-10. Lane's representatives constituted the largest group from any school in the State.

Since the band was throughout the war years progressing in its ideal to give better musical programs to Lane and to the community, for it there are no reconversion problems. However, its aim for the future will be the same as that of the past—development of good music and good citizens, both here at Lane and also in the world of tomorrow.

The "C" Club is an organization made up of boys who have earned their varsity letter in some form of athletics. At the present time there are five major sports represented by the activities of the thirty-odd members of the club; these sports are football, basketball, baseball, track, and boxing.

Percy Barnett, football and baseball star, was elected to serve as president of the club. Outstanding as a football and track man, is Doug Deane, who was voted vice-president. A three-letter man in baseball, football, and basketball, Bill Chisholm, was chosen as club secretary, while Bill Carter, quarterback on the football team and boxer in the 135-pound class, was elected treasurer.

The prime aim of the "C" Club is to encourage good sportsmanship and fair play at all times, striving continually to develop good citizenship among the students at Lane.

An annual affair sponsored by the Club is the Christmas dance, which this year was more successful than it has ever been before. The "C" Club pins were awarded to all members at the dance.

When a boy earns his varsity letter he must go through an initiation that lasts for about a week. These boys do everything from wearing dresses to singing in the auditorium. While it sometimes seems hard going, when it's all over, the boys really "belong".

In the future as in the past, the "C" Club will continue to fight dishonesty, an unsportsmanlike attitude, and unbecoming conduct on the athletic field.

Following the creed of the Senior Boys' Hi-Y, the club began a very successful year with its election of capable officers, followed by an induction of new members held in a joint meeting with the Girls' Hi-Y.

The standards and purposes proposed by the club have not only been carried out within their meetings, but the club has extended its worthiness to contributions to the National Red Cross and March of Dimes. As usual, it also carried out a successful campaign in its distribution of Christmas baskets to the needy families in the city.

After having been discontinued for the war years, the district Hi-Y conference was revived and met with the Lane Clubs as hosts on November 9, 10, and 11, 1945. The conference was well attended, with delegates from a number of clubs in the state participating in the programs. J. C. Ingram, Secretary, Southern Area Council of the clubs, also was present for the occasion, and his talks proved an inspiration for greater future accomplishments. Lane may feel the conference was of special importance to our members, as its District President, Ken Wallenborn, came from our Senior Boys' Hi-Y group.

As the year progressed, the club recognized from its outstanding achievements that the jewel-pin was indeed earned by one who had extended in many ways the influences of his club. In recognition of the honor bestowed upon its bearer, Doug Deane, who wore the pin for one semester, presented it to Bobby Lawrence to wear in the fulfillment of his Hi-Y deeds as Treasurer and member of the Senior Hi-Y Club.

The purpose of the Junior Boys' Hi-Y is to create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community higher standards of Christian character and to uphold clean speech, clean athletics, clean scholarship, and clean living. This purpose was upheld in war as it is in peace, through the club's contributions to the Red Cross and in the preparation of boxes for service men overseas.

From the Eighth Grade, Freshman, and Sophomore classes, boys who are capable of meeting the Hi-Y qualifications and who appear to need the support of the Hi-Y ideals are selected for membership.

As junior members the boys learn to carry on the work of the club, so that they become efficient Senior Hi-Y boys. They have aided in the service boxes for overseas, the distribution of Christmas boxes, and in various other ways, showing their full faith in the Hi-Y Creed.

The boys have originated an independent stand in their meetings, with outside guest speakers and self-proposed programs, thus opening before them the duties they are to perform.

Active part has been taken by the Junior members in the Club's efforts to attend a different church every month and in the District Hi-Y Conference, which in the past had been conducted largely by the older group.

Thus experience is obtained by the Junior group members. With such experience, the club can readily follow and fulfill obligations bestowed upon them as they become part of the Senior Hi-Y next year.

The primary aim of the Senior Girls' Hi-Y this year has been to reveal to each of its members her spiritual need and to point out the beauty of high ideals and pure living. While each of the girls played the role of Santa Claus for a family of young children at Christmas, and as a club contributed generously to various worthy causes, emphasis was placed on the standards and influence of the club itself. Programs of an evangelistic nature were planned in order that each girl might discover the importance of portraying the full meaning of the Hi-Y creed.

The Senior Girls' Hi-Y Club served as hostess to the District Hi-Y Conference, which was held in Charlottesville this year. Reverend H. A. Donovan and Dr. A. W. Graves addressed the Conference, and group discussions on various current national problems and other topics of importance were held.

The Jeweled Pin, awarded by the girls to that member of the club whom they believe to extend the most Christian influence among her classmates, was won by Rowena Revis.

The Hi-Y has had a better opportunity than any other organization in Lane to prepare its members for whatever may lie on the road ahead, for they have come close to the knowledge of eternal truth as set forth by the high standards of Christian living.

The Girls' Junior Hi-Y like all the other Hi-Y groups at Lane has taken a step forward. In the reconversion from War to Peace the girls have turned their efforts in the direction of their duty to the school, their homes, and the community.

At the beginning of this year it was found necessary to organize a separate Eighth Grade Hi-Y, because of the large number of the girls desiring to join. Thus, the Club has been composed entirely of Freshmen and Sophomores.

The Club had its own aims to promote friendship among the girls at Lane and to encourage in them high standards of Christian character. In the fall the girls helped to entertain the delegates to the State Hi-Y Conference held here.

At Christmas the club entered into the true spirit of the season by giving a party for some underprivileged children of our community. At the same time the members dressed dolls for the Mothers' Club.

In addition to its direct aid in various charitable and community projects the organization contributed to the Community Fund, the American Red Cross, March of Dimes, and to the Tuberculosis Fund.

The Club looks forward to further years of service as the younger girls take over the future offices of leadership and the older members take their places in the Senior Hi-Y.

The Girls' Eighth Grade Hi-Y Club was organized at Lane for the first time this year, because there were so many girls who wished to become members of the Junior group. It was considered more practical to have a separate Eighth Grade organization and under the leadership of its president, Lolly Carruthers, and sponsor, Miss Lillian Butt, this group has become a "little sister" of whom the Junior and Senior Clubs may be proud.

The work of the other clubs has been shared by the Eighth Grade girls, with members of the group participating eagerly and efficiently in all projects undertaken by the older girls. Having experienced valuable training, this group will prove an outstanding organization in building at Lane the new world of the future.

As we look forward to bigger, better things for Lane, we look through the "eyes" of our Student Council. It is through this body that we exercise the privilege of democratic student government. Ideas and plans for a well-rounded school life are introduced and discussed by the Council; problems concerning school activities are met and disposed of by this student group.

Under the leadership of Norton Pritchett, president, and Mr. Walker, sponsor, the past year has been unusually successful. Measures were taken to improve the conduct in the auditorium, the cafeteria, the halls, and the recreation room, 112. A greater number of assemblies and entertainment programs were given this year; the council has sponsored several of these assemblies. Among other activities the Council encouraged intra-mural athletics.

The powers which are vested in the Student Council help to teach the student body the way of democratic government and civic responsibility; these in turn teach us the principles of good citizenship, with which we may build the brighter, better world of tomorrow.

Honor Committee

Extending over a period of several years, the Honor Committee has gradually become a more powerful and influential force in our student government. Under the leadership of Dan Via during this session the committee has proved to be very effective and valuable.

All cases concerning students who disobey school rules or who are reported for some offense are heard by the Honor Committee. Different cases are dealt with by various methods. If a lunchroom offense is committed, a punishment affecting the activities of the student in the cafeteria may be inflicted. The previous method of signing pledge cards for a first offense has been used less extensively this year; instead, direct punishment has been applied and proves to be more effective.

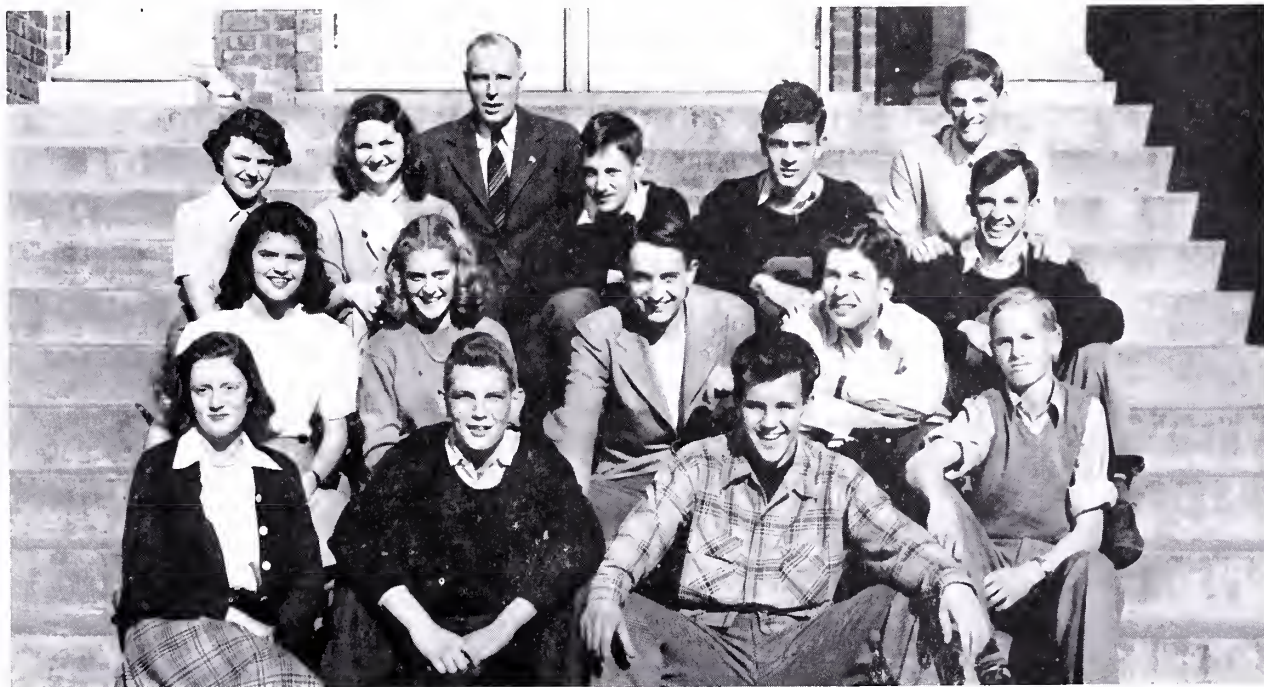

Without a judicial branch to apply pressure for the observance of its laws, the Student Council could not work effectively. As we convert our war-weary nation into peacetime activity once again, we need rules and regulations; we also need punishment for law breakers who cannot abide by those rules and regulations that prove to be beneficial. So it is at Lane; our Honor Committee can work together with the student body to carry out successfully the laws that will help our school of tomorrow to function more effectively.

Ushers Club

Eight years ago the Ushers Club was formed from the Student Council to assist the council in the student phases of school administration. The members, fifteen in number, are elected annually by the Student Council from a group of eligible students. These form the law-enforcing body of our school government.

This Club not only supervises traffic in the halls, but it also keeps order in the lunchroom and regulates the lunch lines. Ushers are appointed for the community concerts and the various other social events that take place at Lane.

Under the sponsorship of H. H. Walker, the Ushers Club has been successful in maintaining a high standard of conduct at Lane. The Club can be proud of its past achievements, as it progresses in its aim to establish at our school superior standards of conduct.

As a means of promoting worthwhile activities among girls and arriving at a better understanding of problems peculiar to them, the Girls' Activities Council was organized this year. The Council was made up of a representative from each home-room, two members from the Student Council, and one member of the Ushers Club. Each member served on at least one of the standing committees. Mrs. E. O. McCue, Jr., Miss Lillian Butt, Miss Virginia Bolen, and Mrs. Mabel A. Talley—the faculty counseling committee—acted as sponsors.

Under the chairmanship of Louise Garth, the Vocational Guidance Committee searched for and made available material from colleges and vocational centers. With its chairman, Barbara Hankins, the Student Welfare Committee took care of problems concerning the personal welfare of girls. Under the leadership of Charlotte Wood, the Fellowship Committee members promoted an atmosphere of friendliness and courtesy. They showed special interest in the girls of the eighth grade, making their acquaintance individually, as well as entertaining them as a group in the spring. With Mary Lou Wood as chairman, the Publicity Committee spread the ideas of the others to the student body. Bulletin boards were placed in the girls' lavatories on which posters and clippings were exhibited conveying the idea of the particular project on which the Council was working.

Football

Lane can be proud of the record set by the football team of 1945. The only game the local eleven lost was that with Lynchburg, and despite this defeat early in the season, the team made a colorful comeback. The schedule was not an easy one, and there was tough competition in all of the games.

In recognition of their splendid playing, Percy Barnette, Raymond Davis, and Roy Ramey received honorable mention on the All-State team.

In addition to these boys numerous other players on Lane's eleven showed up exceptionally well this season. Some of the most outstanding were "Squirt" Davis, left tackle and backbone of Lane's defense; Percy Barnette, left halfback and master hand in carrying the ball for successful gains and goals; Roy Ramey, outstanding in his position at right end; and "Moose" Deane, valuable at right halfback.

In the center position Gordon Granger and Bill Wood shared honors, while Carroll Todd and Bill Carter in the backfield proved a strong defense. Jack Warrick was outstanding at his position of right tackle, and Bill Chisholm capably held down the left end berth.

The position of left guard was ably filled by Max Kennedy while at right guard was Bernie Chisholm, who made a remarkable record in his first year of football for Lane. Bernie will be back next year and he is expected to be one of the most outstanding players.

Of this year's first string players eight will not be back. Those who graduate this year include Bill Chisholm, Raymond Davis, Gordon Granger, Jack Warrick, Roy Ramey, Percy Barnette, "Moose" Deane, Carroll Todd, Langdon Hankins, Norton Pritchett, and James Collier.

Lane's standing in the Class A League this year was fourth, winning four Class A games and losing one. In Class A competition, Lane scored a total of 83 points. Only 33 points were scored against the locals in the Class A League. During the whole season Lane scored a total of 204 points, making 32 touchdowns and running 12 extra points. Only 52 points were scored against the team in the whole season.

GEORGE WASHINGTON

In the first game of the season Lane defeated the highly favored team from Alexandria. Both touchdowns were scored in the first half of the game. Lane held a defensive position in the second half.

WAYNESBORO

Although Waynesboro scored in the first quarter of the game, Lane managed to win by a score of 25-6. The local team outplayed Waynesboro.

LYNCHBURG

Lane played its poorest ball in this game. While three of its players were out of the game because of injuries and Lynchburg had a large powerful team, Lane came back in the second half with good ball. The locals' touchdown was made by Roy Ramey on a pass from Bill Dettor. "Squirt" Davis and Perk Barnette played a good game.

SALEM

In this game the boys of Lane did not seem to be clicking as they should be. Mike Cason played good ball, but four touchdowns were jumbled by Lane players.

V.S.D.B.

39—13

Lane Varsity showed too much power for V.S.D.B. so the second and third team played most of the game.

FAIRFAX

Fairfax beat Alexandria 16-12 and came to Charlottesville with the intention of upsetting Lane. However, Lane was hot and could not be stopped. Spectators showed lots of spirit at this game and helped the players by cheering. Barnette, Cason, Deane, and Davis were the outstanding players. Bill Dettor was injured and Bill Wood substituted for Gordon Granger.

First Column: N. Pritchett, R. Davis, R. Ramey, J. Warwick, and C. Todd.

Second Column: G. Granger, P. Barnett, D. Dean, B. Chisholm, and B. Wood.

First Column: B. Carter, M. Kennedy, B. Dettor, J. Eckford, and K. Richardson.

Second Column: G. Stauffer, M. Cason, B. Chisholm, A. Breeden, and W. Roudabush.

HARRISONBURG

Lane traveled to Harrisonburg and defeated the Blue Streaks on their own field. The outstanding play of this game was made by Roy Ramey, who ran 80 yards for a touchdown on a fumble.

FREDERICKSBURG

Lane gained revenge for Fredericksburg's victories of the past two years. Bill Chisholm ran 70 yards for a touchdown on an end-around play.

DANVILLE

Danville, the highly favored team, put all the effort they had into the game, but they just couldn't overcome the determined Lane team. Carroll Todd started the game in a big way with a 60-yard run on the first play. Because of inexperience on a muddy field he was forced out of bounds; nevertheless, Lane led, 7-0, at the end of the first five minutes, Barnette having scored a touchdown.

With two minutes to play and Danville throwing wild passes, the opponents were on the two-yard line. Arnold Breeden recovered a fumble and, with the smartest play of the game, gave Danville a safety in the end zone, causing the ball to be moved to the 20-yard line. This prevented Danville from scoring again.

* * * * *

The football team is grateful to the Lions' Club for their interest in the team and for their whole-hearted support. For the awards of gold footballs to Senior lettermen, outstanding players, and most valuable player, the team is especially grateful.

Lane can anticipate successful ball being played in the new stadium which the Lions' Club is expecting to make possible for the school in the future.

Boys' Basketball of '46 In Review

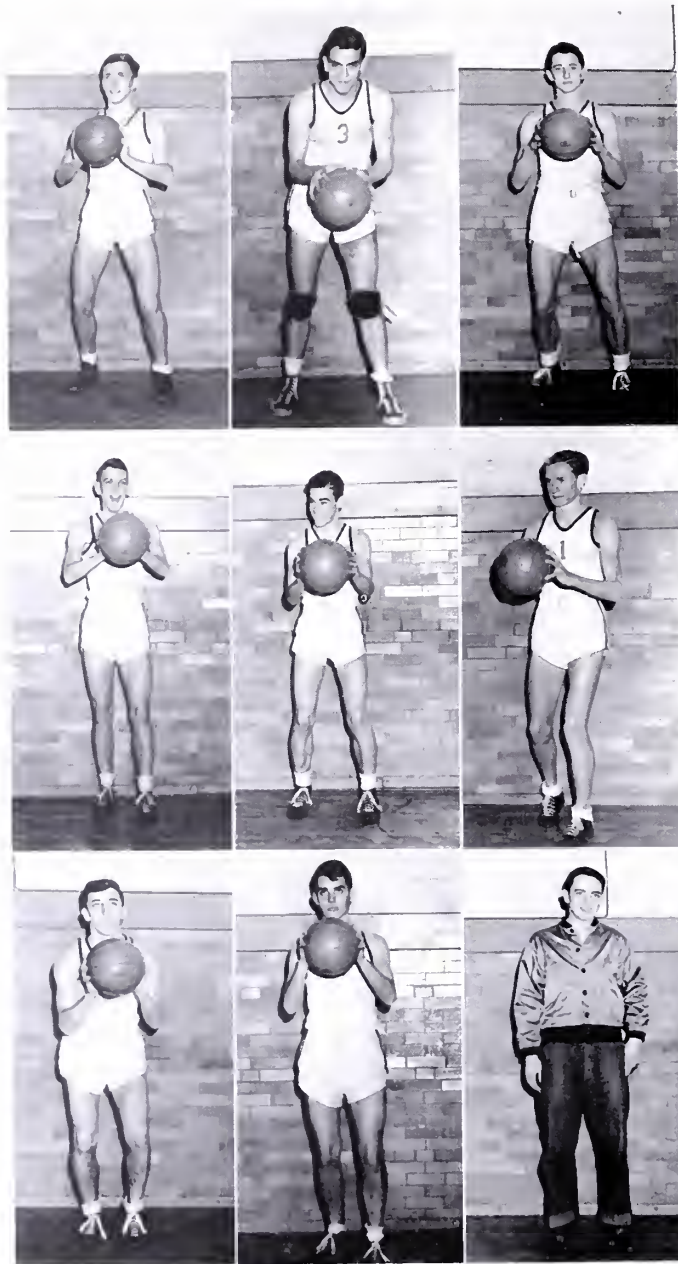

The Lane Basketball Team opened its 1946 season with a game with Robert E. Lee High in Staunton. Although they were beaten, the Lane-ites gave the Leemena strong opposition. Pat McCauley was high scorer with 16 points, and Max Kennedy followed with 8.

The following week-end Lane journeyed to Fairfax and Alexandria. They defeated Fairfax in a closely fought contest, 25 to 24. Max Kennedy was high scorer with 11 points, and Roy Ramey and Pat McCauley followed with 6 each. The next night the Lane-ites moved to Alexandria where they lost a hard fought game, 48 to 35. Max Kennedy was again high scorer with 20 points. Although the two first string guards, Bill Chisholm and Roy Ramey were fouled out, the team maintained a good defense throughout the remainder of the game.

First Row: R. Ramey, N. Pritchett, and B. Chisholm.

Second Row: M. Kennedy, C. Cash, and P. McCauley.

Third Row: G. Stauffer, B. Dettor, and B. German, manager.

The following Tuesday Lane returned home and defeated the Virginia School for the Deaf and Blind, 49 to 25. Max Kennedy was high scorer with 10 points; Buddy Pritchett was next with 8. Coach Bodnarik substituted frequently, and nearly all of the substitutes scored at least once or twice.

On the following Friday night the Lane-ites went to Arlington and played the Washington and Lee High quintet, winning by the close score of 24 to 23. Max Kennedy was high scorer with 15 points. The boys of the "Orange and Black" froze the ball for the last two minutes and thirty-five seconds of the game. Roy Ramey was outstanding on the defense in this game.

The next night Lane travelled to Fredericksburg where they lost a very rough contest, 23 to 21. Max Kennedy and Bill Chisholm were high scorers with 6 points apiece. Many fouls were called throughout the game.

The next week Lane played Woodberry Forest on Thursday. The Lane-ites were completely out-classed by the boys from the preparatory school and lost 46 to 18. Max Kennedy was high scorer with 8 points.

Starting their home slate again, Lane lost another game to Robert E. Lee High of Staunton by a score of 34 to 28. Again Max Kennedy was high scorer with 12 points. Lane's defense was not clicking in this game, and they also missed many shots.

In a second game played by V.S.D.B. the Lane varsity defeated them by a score of 40 to 24. Max Kennedy was high scorer with 11 points and Buddy Pritchett was next with 9.

Lane defeated Washington and Lee 33 to 28 in a return game on the Lane court. Roy Ramey and Max Kennedy were high scorers with 10 points each. There were twenty-five fouls called in the game.

The locals then defeated the Alumni of Lane High School to the tune of 39 to 15. The former Lanemen were no match for the varsity, and Max Kennedy was high scorer with 12 points and Carl Cash was second with 11.

Again Fredericksburg defeated Lane in another rough contest, 33 to 24. Max Kennedy was high scorer with 11 points. There were twenty-one fouls called in this game.

Alexandria came to Charlottesville to play a game which would determine the championship of the Northern District, after which the winner would go to the semi-finals for the state championship. The Lane-ites lost a hard fought contest 35 to 28, staging a rally which fell a few points short. Carl Cash was high scorer with 10 points; Bill Chisholm was next with 9.

Closing the season, the varsity easily defeated the Fairfax "Rebels", 30 to 14. Carl Cash was high scorer with 14 points; Bill Chisholm was next with 9.

This has been Coach Bodnarik's third year as basketball coach and he has turned out three successful teams. With his Assistant Coach, Walter Schumann, he produced a team which took second place in the Northern District. They won four Class A games, losing only two.

The team this year had six returning lettermen. Three of these leave us this year. They are Roy Ramey, Bill Chisholm, and Buddy Pritchett. Returning next year will be high-scoring Max Kennedy and Carl Cash, and also Pat McCauley and Bill Dettor.

This year the team won 7 games and lost 7 games for a percentage of .500. Lane scored 428 points to the opponents' 411. Max Kennedy was highest individual point scorer with 131 points.

Junior Varsity Squad

Sitting: G. Tebell, B. Pritchett, R. Wallenborn, and B. Wood.

Standing: D. Cooke, B. Adams, E. Nuckols, R. Morrisette, P. Payne, J. Coiner, and L. Leslie, manager.

Lane's Jayvees started the season with a "bang" by defeating a quintet from the Virginia School for the Deaf, in Staunton. The locals took an early lead and were never really pushed at any time during the game. The final score stood 38-19. Albert Yancey was high scorer for Lane with ten points.

The second game on the schedule was with the Hinton Avenue Methodist Church quint, winners in the Rotary sponsored church league. This game was a rough and tumble affair with the lead changing hands many times before the final whistle sounded. The final tally was scored in the last ten seconds to give Lane a 26-25 decision.

The next game was a return contest with V.S.D. in Staunton. On this occasion Lane ran into some bad luck as one of its regulars, Richard Morrisette, was out with a very bad cold. The other players, however, did their best and at the half the score was 16-9, in favor of Lane. At the start of the second half, though, V.S.D. determined not to let Lane beat them twice and scored twenty-three points, holding Lane to three. As a result the score at the end of the game stood 32-19 in the valley team's favor.

For the fourth contest Lane returned home to meet Hinton Avenue again. Albert Yancey, a main-stay in Lane's offense, was not able to play and Lane once more went down to defeat, by the score of 29-11, Bobby Wood starring for the Lane-ites.

In the final game of the season Lane again broke into the winning column by defeating the "Jackets" of Fredericksburg to the tune of 35-17. Richard Morrisette, Gus Tebell, and Bobby Wood stood out for the Orange and Black.

The members of the Lane Junior Varsity were Bobby Wood, Albert Yancey, Bill Pritchett, Gus Tebell, Richard Morrisette, Eugene Nuckols, Bill Adams, Paul Payne, Jimmie Coiner, Roberdeau Wallenborn, and David Cooke.

The Juniors played five games, winning three and losing two. These boys gained valuable experience on the court, insuring for themselves berths on Lane's varsity team in the seasons to follow.

Association

The Girls' Athletic Association is a new organization at Lane. It is organized as are other groups with the following officers: President, Evelyn Easton; Vice-President, Dorothy Shaw; Secretary, Anne Freudenberg; Treasurer, Lois Bendel; and Merit Recorder, Kathleen Clark. The girls pay dues of twenty-five cents a term or fifty cents a year. The meetings are held on the last Friday of every month.

Tennis, badminton, volleyball, baseball, basketball, and field ball are the different sports played. At least once during the session Lane acts as hostess and invites girls from the neighboring schools to play the games in season and participate in a "play day". The other big social event is the mother-daughter picnic.

The Athletic Association is a "peace" baby at Lane. As the ideals of peace grow, it is felt that this new group too will grow in importance and spread its ideals of good sportsmanship throughout the student body, holding out some of the good things of life on the road ahead.

Track

Track has been steadily increasing in popularity at Lane for the last few years, the 1946 season proving the most successful experienced thus far.

George Washington of Alexandria, Washington and Lee of Arlington, and Lane, all class A teams from the Northern Virginia District, met at Arlington on April 26 to choose contestants for the State Contest, held at the University of Virginia May 11.

The local team also sent representatives to an Invitational Meet held at Arlington on May 4. Track men from Northern Virginia, the District of Columbia, and Maryland were well represented on this occasion. Lane is proud to announce that in 1945 at a similar contest that Bland Norris set a new record for the 440-yard dash and also that Bobby Turner's record for the high jump was unequalled.

A few of the team's more promising members, John Root, Gordon Granger, John Llewellyn, and Jason Eckford, entered the State Indoor Meet held at the University early in March. All showed up well, especially Jason Eckford, who tied for third place in the 50-yard low hurdles, and John Llewellyn, who won fourth place in the mile. John Root and Gordon Granger were members of last year's relay team which won a trophy at an Invitation Meet in Arlington, Virginia.

Additional outstanding members of this year's team included Roy Ramey, stellar miler; King Richardson, high and broad jumper; Ken Wallenborn, hurdler; Buddy LaFon, half-miler; and "Squirt" Davis and Al Yancey, shot putters.

Others who competed creditably for Lane on the cinder path were Carroll Todd, Allan Wimbish, Bill Pritchett, Bobby Drash, James Bickley, and Percie Cummings.

With Jimmie Harlow and Bill Lupton as manager and assistant manager, the team of 1946 moved a step forward toward making track a major sport at Lane.

Baseball

Front: B. Chisholm, M. H. Cason, C. Morris, B. Wood, C. Cash, and A. Breeden.

Back: B. Dettor, B. German, G. Granger, M. Kennedy, P. Barnett, B. Carter, C. Herring, and W. Chisholm.

The Lane High Baseball Team started practice March 11 with a squad numbering about forty members. Baseball was resumed at Lane in 1944, after an interval of a number of years during which there was no team, and this spring, interest in the sport was greater than at any time in the past.

Under Coach John Bodnarik's tutoring and with Bill Roudabush and Eugene Nuckols as manager and assistant manager, a schedule of twelve games was played; the opponents including Woodberry Forest, Fairfax, V.S.D.B., Washington and Lee, George Washington, and McIntire.

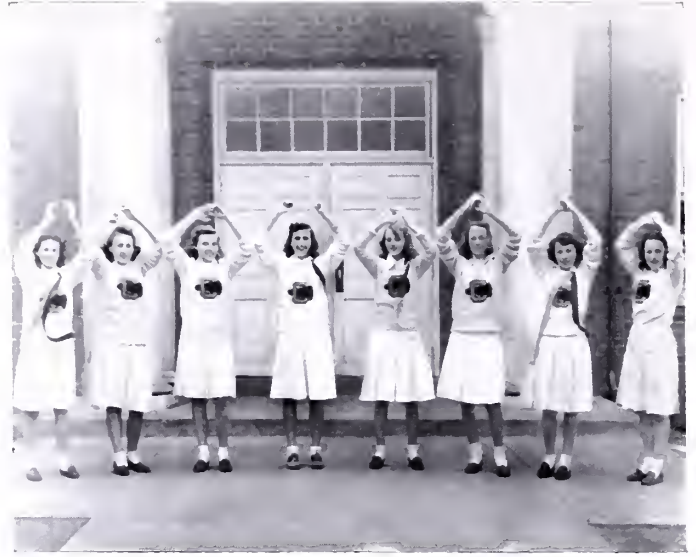

Lane was fortunate in having experienced players for all positions except that of catcher. Letter men of '45 who starred on the diamond this spring included Bill Chisholm at first base, Arnold Breeden at second, Gordon Stauffer at third, and Perk Barnett at short stop. In the out-field Bernice Chisholm, Max Kennedy, and Gordon Granger were outstanding in their positions, while Bobby German and Bill Dettor shouldered the responsibility at the mound. Bill Carter played his first year behind the plate, and showed up well in the position of catcher.

Other boys who aided the regulars included Mike Cason, Bobby Wood, Paul Payne, Carlton Morris, Bill Adams, Noel Gaerttner, Carroll Herring, and Carl Cash.

Baseball is staging a comeback at Lane and in the next few years will achieve greater importance in the sports program. The school may anticipate seeing an accomplished team perform, backed by enthusiastic supporters from the student body.

Cheerleaders

B. A. Adams, N. B. Leslie, head cheerleader, K.
Carmichael, M. A. Martin, and D. May.*

Last September try-outs for cheerleaders were held in the gym, at which time the girls' athletic directors, Mrs. Mabel Talley and Miss Gwen Bennett, chose fourteen girls to perform before the entire student body. In the assembly which followed each girl led a cheer to demonstrate what ability she possessed. From this group competing, eight were selected by the vote of the entire school. When the votes were counted, it was found that Nancy Byrd Leslie had been chosen Head Cheerleader, and Betty Ann Adams, Millie Lou Kane, Mary Ann Martin, Kitty Carmichael, Alice Dougherty, Doris May, and Theresa Smith had been selected as her assistants.

Practices were held every week, and before each game a pep rally took place. If possible, the rally was held in the auditorium, but if the assembly hall was not available, the meeting was held on the school steps the night before the game.

The cheerleaders had full representation at most of the football games, including the out-of-town contests. This year the school sent them to two of the out-of-town games.

All and all, this has been a very eventful year, and the cheerleaders did their part to add color at the football games and to cheer the team on to victory.

As an innovation in the girls' athletic program this year intra-mural tournaments were played off in basketball, volleyball, and softball.

Since altogether there were fourteen basketball teams, an elimination tournament was played. Teams from the different grades were formed and the captains were: eighth grade, Jane Dickerson, Juanita Parr, Clara Kirby, Dorothy Proffit, and Pat Hibbert; ninth grade, Hilda Burton, Margaret Saunders, and Jackie Wood; tenth grade, Charlotte Yancey, Betty Joan Smith, and Shirley Jo Carr; eleventh grade, Elsie Sprouse; twelfth grade, Evelyn Easton, and Betty Scarpetta.

At the time that THE CHAIN went to press the elimination tournaments had not been completed; thus, it was not possible to give the final results.

After the basketball tournament was finished, the softball and volleyball contests started. Participation in this program gave Lane girls an opportunity to enjoy a full season of Spring Sports.

Girls' Physical Education Department

The Girls' Physical Education Department has undergone several progressive changes this year in both its administrative and activity programs. Under the direction of two instructors, Mrs. Mabel A. Talley and Miss Gwen Bennett, both of whom began their duties here in September of this year, the girls have had an increased amount of self-government. With the new program, each gym class has three class captains who carry the orders of the instructors in charge to each squad or small division of the class having a squad leader and assistant leader. In this way better cooperation and team work has been promoted among the girls, and the leaders have learned to shoulder new responsibilities.

The fall program consisted of field ball, volleyball, and speedball. This winter a new system was introduced and the classes followed a mass activity program whereby squads rotated in their various activities each day. Dancing, basketball, and badminton were the outstanding sports. Softball, volleyball, badminton, and tennis constituted the spring program.

Since challenging responsibilities await the citizens the American schools produce in the next decade, it is essential that the citizens of tomorrow be physically fit to meet them. This year the Girls' Physical Education Department has taken its first important step in building an organization which will equip its students with both sound minds and bodies. Its objectives have been to develop an understanding of the need for personal health and to attain and maintain proper habits of health through physical education, to cultivate pride in physical development, to inculcate a sense of responsibility through leadership, to respect the rights of others, to develop friendships, to learn to be a good follower as well as a good leader, to play a game always fairly and squarely, thus getting along with other people and learning to be a good loser as well as a good winner; in short, developing into an all-round "good sport".

Physical Education also contributes growth to the students' personalities; it provides for individual expressions and enlarges their present interests and capacities through a well-rounded intra-mural program, thus helping them to become adjusted better both socially, emotionally, and morally; therefore, it is an important factor in the education of America's future citizens.

My Senior Diary

Sept. 4 - Back to school, and look at these "mighty Seniors" already! Miss Solomon's being very stubborn and won't let me change my schedule. Surprise too! Sometime's first edition today with summer news - Senior Boys' Mtg. meeting to night with interesting reports from "Willie Brondolush and Bobby Lawrence" who attended the Southern Area Mtg. Conference at N.C.!

Sept. 5 - "Get ready!" The goal's 100% for the Sometime subscription campaign - 207 dashed ahead all Senior home rooms with 100% the first day! "Buddy" cracked the whip and the Student Council meets today.

Sept. 7 - Senior class meeting was held to elect officers (crossed my fingers for you "Bo") and to draw up Senior privileges.

Sept. 10 - Senior privileges approved - even the trip to Washington! Oh, what fun! No more lugging books around either cause our locker keys were issued today.

Sept. 11 - 4 I were signified today - annomies test! My, what a huge needle. Results 13.6; whew, I made it!

Sept. 12 - Speidel's first big history test. They say you have to pass 4A History to graduate, sob!

Sept. 13 - "Byrd" is linking up the "Chain" - some job. Luck to ya!

Sept. 14 - With five new teachers here at Lane, filling out my schedule card was terrific. Signed up for the Players Club and there were lots of students there. Such characters had to appear for initiations too; Daisy Mae, Gravel Gertie, Veronica.

Sept. 21 - First assembly (you'd believed it too!) for the Eighth Graders (Welcome to Lane!). Fourteen cheer leaders tried out. Kitty Carmichael got the most enthusiasm and spirit from her audience.

Sept. 24 - Ouch! "C" Club initiation my, what pretty legs, Roy!

Sept. 25 - Oh, strains of the buzz of the "Bumble-bee" is turning we hear as the staff gets out its search for literary talent. ("Frozen Murder" - literature?)

Sept. 28 - Lanetime spreads news that Jack Warwick is the president of the choir, and the ushers are being slammed & again! First football game! Won 13-0 from Andric & in spite of the "hubs" drum majorettes.

Such naughty Freshman & stuffing box already!

Rep rally hailed welcome to Coach

Oct. 12 - Lynchburg was warmed by a big send-off of cheers to our team, accompanied by lots of "spirited" Lanites.

Oct. 22 - With all this lovely sunshine & and about time & Billy can really get on with his "Chain" pictures. No wonder the staff doesn't need a camera with a birdie to get the smiles!

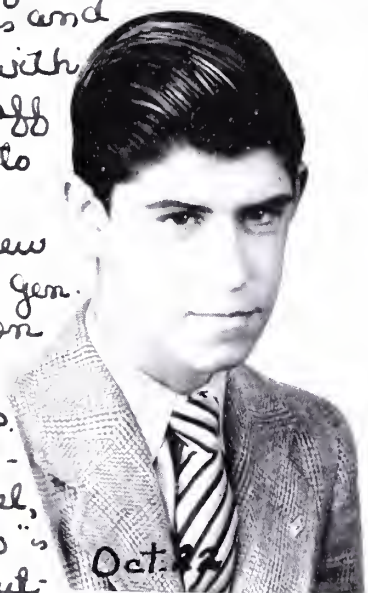

Oct. 15 - Report cards & 'nuff said! That new familiar pop is Bubble Bubble Gum. Gen. Vandegrift addressed a public rally on behalf of the Char'ville and County War Fund. Gosh, I always look to the Marines.

Oct. 16 - "Overtones" and its powerful slandering! "Of men (Via, Dinneen, Wurfel, Chauvet) played cards as women do" - more slander! Our Lane Band strutting at the U. of Va. game.

Oct. 30 - What a chorus of "panty girls" in our assembly, Thanks to B. Britchett, M. Johnson, J. Collier, J. Warwick! There's a circus in town & we're getting out at 2:30 to go & hope there are lots of monkeys and clowns there to get my mind off school!!

Oct. 31 - The date tells its own story & oh, I hate myself when I do things like that!

Nov. 2 - Lane won 38-0 over Fairfax, hurrah! Quite a dance was given by the Band. Such bright shirts for holes.

to know you were chosen president of the Fourth Virginia District. Now for the U. of Va. vs. Richmond football game. It sounds high and mighty, but we nearly froze. Nothing that the banquet at the Methodist Church couldn't fix up tho'. And the dance ~ oh!!

Nov. 11 ~ Following Church Sunday, the conference closed officially, even tho' some of the delegates visited points of interest about our city later. Perfect anti-climax!

Nov. 19 ~ Thanks giving. Wonder who'll be the more stuffed the turkey or me!! Yummy, yummy.

Nov. 20 ~ The Senior Boys' bi-y assembly program made me much more aware of Thanks giving and the honor deserved of those men who died in the service of our country.

Nov. 21 ~ off to Danville. Won 13-8 too! We went along this time ~ no wonder we won.

Nov. 26 ~ too much holiday ~ many vacant seats! Betty and Joanne are busy already for costumes used in "Our Forum."

out its exceptionally good talent with a vocal solo by Sallie Ross, Sue Walker's piano solo, "Polonaise", a selection by the quartet, and Anita Mackenzie, accompanied by her mother, presented a violin solo. Hats off to their splendid performance.

Dec. 6-7 Above the loud talking and crackling of bubble gum, "Our Forum" managed to present some outstanding talent selected from the Players' Club. Holy cow, garden's hair-do, a la eggs, cokes, and pie survived (along with the class) 4th History 5th period.

Dec. 11 Well, after many broken paddles, the "C" Club reached its goal for the year, and now there are many proud faces reflected above those bright new "es". The picture in the assembly proved to be the most interesting to our boys nearest 12 - "The Diary of a Sergeant"!

Dec. 13 This unlucky date brought a big quiz equally as unlucky. The seniors are getting new rings! (#)

Dec. 18 Bond Commit movie tickets to assembly with awards of seniors in 215!

Dec. 19 Let it snow, let it snow! Only long range shots, chum; These Ushers have come through worst experiences than any snow balls could create!

Dec. 20 Senior meeting let me know how I stand for a scholarship. Oh, a girls' big Xmas party. Just one more day to wait, John!

Dec. 21 The Annual Christmas Assembly was given by the choir this morning and the spirit is just coming through strong now. The gym looked lovely, 'neath those soft (66) lights. "We (could have) damned the whole mile through." Good ole "C" Club.

Dec. 25 It's here - up goes the tree and down the chimney comes St. Nick; you know, Santa Clause! Well, I see my stocking hanging full - Merry Christmas and Happy New Year to you all too.

DEC. 19

Jan. 4 - Back to school - not that I missed the old joint! Model "25" came rattling in all frozen over with ice - I might mention one didn't even get a rattle out of it this morning.

Jan. 8-9-10. Nine of the Band became members of the Fifth Annual All-State Band; such up and coming seniors as Sam Vio, Betty Smith, Sue Walker, Judy Lending, and Julia Hughes.

Jan. 16 - Gosh, Diary, I've been dodging mumps and measles, sorry I've left you "undone" for so long. Ermm, too (yes, I was dodging them too, but no luck!)
Jan. 18 - On your toes, Ushers - Another Community Concert tonight.

Jan. 19 - The foe? Arlington. The victor? Same - 24-23!

Jan. 22 - Well, that "thing" here again and I'm doubting my pull for passing grades on this report. So long, Bob Berham, here's wishing you luck in the Coast Guards.

Jan. 25 - Rumors of steady workers of the G.A.A. spread - here's one support, Eve (pres.), we need it!

Jan. 28 - Again we look to the Senior Boys' X-Y as the club selected Bobby Lawrence to wear the jeweled pin.

Jan. 30 - We turn from gym workouts to shaking legs - square dancing, Chum!

Feb. 2 - Just one more partner, that's all! Mr. Chase led a square dance Sat. night that took Carolina memories for a loop (Carolyn hopes!).

Feb. 5 - Get the formal deb. Mom. concert tonight.

busy spelling features. The biggest, ficult question. And Sallie led a great presentation of "The Pills of Capistrano". The songs took me "out of this world."

Feb. 14 - Cupid's aim was never better - look at all the stars in the girls' eyes - oh!

Feb. 15 - Pepsi Cola really hit a spot with its exam, eh we, Sue, "Blotter", Rouema, Preston? (P.S. Sue, we're mighty glad you won.)

Feb. 18 - Senior play try outs. Oh, I want that part!

Feb. 21 - Orchids to the Baptists! They beat Benton Avenue!

Feb. 21 & 22. The Lions Minstrel, "Now & Then", took on many lame beauts for their show. Thanks, lions, we need a stadium.

Feb. 22 - Double-header! Basketball game and Student Council Dance!

Lots of fun - why don't we do this more often!

Mar. 2 - Senior play practice - I got that part!

Feb. 28 - Goodbye, Ruth (Miss Vest - ahem!) Hope you'll like your work at the hospital. We sure will miss you. Carry on, Pauline.

Mar. 1 - Gang way - The track team is warming up. Oh, what a party the lions had for its "show crew" at the Riviera Villa - "blondie" & Winnie cut a real rug - mm.

Mar. 4 - Big rush - Community Concert, Church League (rooting for you, Baptists), and, on all days of day, report cards!

Mar. 5 - Big blow for march! Hank and Wurfel presented plans to the Community Concepts Committee for a Teen-Age Club. We're pulling for you cause we know its need.

Mar. 8th World Day of Prayer was recognized by a Bi-Y Assembly. Players' Club Dance was a big success & oh, my, what decorations!

Mar. 11th The final play off between Baptists and Hinton Avenue & well, Hinton Ave. won a tough game, 29-22. Three Cheers!
Mar. 14th Senior meeting and the Seniors are going to Washington.

Mar. 20th Hank represented Lane at a public speaking contest and was awarded a silver cup as District winner. One slap on your back, boy.

MAR. 21

Mar. 21st Play Day. The school played basketball with McEntire and Greenwood High School. Everyone had fun & more crumpled heads and bruised bones!

Mar. 23rd Congratulations to our Music Department for taking the rank of "superior" at the District, III Music Festival held at Charlotte Court House.

Mar. 26th The Senior Body, Bi-Y elected new officers, and Boney

Burton took the highest honor of wearing the Jeweled Pin.

Mar. 27th Happy Birthday! Miss Thornhill had a cake & everything.

Mar. 28-29th "That" play & a hiker. Our comedy, "The man who came to dinner" was a great hit. Didn't forget a line; I just stuttered thro' 'em!

April 1st Ho! I'm not saying one word & April Fool!

April 12 - The Commercial Dept. had a delightful program in our assembly.

May 16 - Anne will troop off to Fairfax with the cast of the play - we get to see it too.

April 27 - Today's a great day for Rowena Ravis and Luis Bendel. Hope you take honors in the Latin Tournament.

May 10-11-12 - Washington was never like this - but the hotel thinks so too! What a grand time.

May - Dear Diary, just now I'm so-o-o busy with "being a Senior", I'll have to give you up to the high spots. We're looking for our rings and the "Chain". Then the dance - Our Senior Dance - with the banquet. And a picnic. It's a lot and yet, is it? Cause it goes by so quickly. I hope the "Chain" gets here soon and everyone I know can sign it.

But, now to make our last days ring with work and pleasure, so that when I look back down my road to Lane, I'll remember the long, great white-way - and

The Immortal Words of Lincoln
GETTYSBURG ADDRESS

FOUR score and seven years ago our fathers brought forth upon this continent a new nation conceived in liberty and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal. Now we are engaged in a great civil war, testing whether that nation or any nation, so conceived and so dedicated can long endure. We are met on a great battle-field of that war. We have come to dedicate a portion of that field as a final resting place for those who here gave their lives, that that nation might live.

It is altogether fitting and proper that we should do this. But in a larger sense we cannot dedicate—we cannot consecrate—we cannot hallow this ground.

The brave men living and dead who struggled here have consecrated it far above our poor power to add or detract. The world will little note, nor long remember what we say here, but it can never forget what they did here. It is for us the living, rather to be dedicated here to the unfinished work that they have thus far so nobly advanced. It is rather for us to be here dedicated to the great task remaining before us, that from these honored dead we take increased devotion to that cause for which they gave the last full measure of devotion, that we here highly resolve that these dead shall not have died in vain, that this nation under God shall have a new birth of freedom, and that government of the people, by the people, and for the people, shall not perish from the earth.
